

Language-Global Liberal Arts

Language-Global Liberal Arts courses (L-GLA)

Language-Global Liberal Arts (L-GLA) courses provide students with the opportunity to develop advanced proficiency in another language in addition to Japanese and English through small, interactive classes.

Who can take the courses?

All Senior Division students (including those in the fourth semester of Junior Division), graduate students, and exchange students can take the courses.

However, students who use the language as their first language or whose proficiency does not meet the standards set by the instructor are not eligible to register. Please check with the instructor before enrolling in the course to confirm your eligibility.

We will be offering three languages courses for the 2025S semester!!

- Advanced Russian
【Day, Period】 Wed.2 Hongo
【Course Code】 7V0301001S
- Advanced Korean
【Day, Period】 Mon.4 Hongo
【Course Code】 7V0301002S
- Advanced Chinese
【Day, Period】 Thu.2 Hongo
【Course Code】 7V0301003S

Details on UTAS!!

For Those who wish to...

continue learning languages they have studied before.

improve languages proficiency other than English for their research.

Global Leadership Program-II (Trilingual Program) GLP-II (TLP)

GLP-II (TLP) is an undergraduate program designed to cultivate the ability to address global challenges from multiple perspectives by developing advanced proficiency in another language in addition to Japanese and English.

Taking L-GLA courses is one of the requirements for completing GLP-II (TLP).

Details of
GLP-II (TLP)
here!!

Contact:
International Academic Affairs Team,
International Education Promotion Group, UTokyo
global.edu.adm@gs.mail.u-tokyo.ac.jp