

Unlock the door to Japanese Society with greetings !

Greetings and Social Relationships

(for Elementary Students)

Have you ever felt that there's something a little different or surprising about Japanese greetings?

For example:

- ✓ Is there a difference between 'Arigatoo gozaimas' and 'Arigatoo gozaimashita'?
- ✓ Does 'Konnichiwa' really correspond to 'Hello'?
- ✓ Why is everyone saying 'Sumimasen' all the time?

This course offers a glimpse into Japanese communication, relationships and ways of thinking about greetings.

* Discussions will be held in English, making it accessible for elementary-level students. However, those who regularly encounter Japanese in daily life and have a basic understanding of common greetings will find this course particularly beneficial.

For students who can read materials and participate in discussions in Japanese at an intermediate or higher level, we recommend taking "Greetings and Social Relationships (for Intermediate to Advanced Students)."
